Hilton Village was built in 1918 to provide wartime housing for workers at Newport News Shipbuilding. For the past six months, special events have been held to mark the community's milestone birthday. The celebration will culminate the first Saturday in July with a Grand Centennial Celebration. Included in the July 7th festivities will be architectural and trolley tours, food trucks, antique vehicles, living history re-enactments, live music, dancing, and two additional food-related activities:

1. A 1918 War Cake Competition – Individuals will compete in a competition to bake a 1918 War Cake, a cake that was an affordable alternative to other desserts during World War I. Since milk, eggs and butter were a luxury at this time, the recipe does not require those ingredients. This event will start at 9 a.m. and end with awards at 11 a.m.

2. An Iron Chef Challenge – Two teams will compete outside in a cooking competition that uses only items and ingredients that were available in 1918. This event will start at noon and end with awards at 2 p.m.
